

RMBS Challenge for 2010

The challenge will be held during the Nov. 18 dinner meeting.

The categories have been expanded to include a wider variety of our members' talents and interests. We know you can find a category that will fit your talents.

Come on everybody and participate. You have time to work on your masterpiece!

Please limit submissions to work done in the last 18 months.

Finished project using Bead Bazaar 2010 Bead

*can be strung or used in embroidery, wirework, or seed bead project

Workshop projects

*Finished from workshops that have taken place in the last year.
*Any technique

Bead Embroidery

*Beaded on a backing
*Can be framed *beaded clothing
*Can be 2 or 3 dimensional

Strung Jewelry

*Necklace, bracelet, pin, earrings, etc.
*Any type of bead, or object strung on thread or wire cable, etc.

Bead: Handcrafted

*Any material, metal, glass, polymer, beaded bead or any other material

Metal Work

*any metal
*can incorporate beads, wirework, PMC and Chainmaille.

Beaded object

*Generally not meant to be worn
*Container, sculpture, etc.

Beadwork Jewelry

*necklace, bracelet, pin, earrings, etc.
*stitched beadwork technique like peyote, herringbone, etc. is the primary method.
*Could be beaded beads used with regular beads and chains.

Polymer Clay

* strung or decorative object.

*Green Theme:

Any project or technique that uses recycled materials. Old costume jewelry, recycled materials that might not be used in jewelry. Not just old beads. Get Wild!